

Gary Lineker finds a heart shaped crisp during a Valentine's Day shoot for Walkers

Tony Kershaw

Photographer | London

Tony's enthusiasm for photography stems from childhood, having been influenced by his aunt and grandfather's passion for pictures. He's been with SWNS since 2013, in that time Tony's confidence has flourished, he's often engaging with an assortment of famous faces and seeking out prospective picture opportunities. His latest work has included coverage of the coronation of King Charles III.

EXPERTISE

Boundless enthusiasm

Clear communicator

Motoring fan

GEAR

- Nikon z9
- Nikon d850
- Nikon -SB-900 Speedlite

Professor Green lives up to his name as the star launches an eco-campaign for Budweiser

I like to take portraits. For me they're much more than just a picture of a person. It's a representation of who they, what they stand for, and what they want to show the world.

QSWNS

