

Anita photographed Miss England contestant Alina Green diving with sharks and fish

Tony and Marie Newton, from Walsall, West Midlands, in their four seasons garden

Anita Maric

Photographer | Birmingham

Anita's long and successful career has been driven by a love of visual story telling and a wealth of hard earned experience. She describes her interest in photography as one focused on capturing people's emotions. She has spent her time travelling throughout the UK and Europe, working on a broad range of projects with a variety of subjects, always revelling in the next challenge which comes her way.

EXPERTISE

Veteran photojournalist

Local knowledge

Compassionate storyteller

GEAR

- Canon R6
- Canon 5D Mk4
- Godox lighting

The Opening Ceremony of The Birmingham 2022 Commonwealth Games

“I enjoy working with people, photography allows you to take down the barriers that are usually in place, and let's you see people's true emotions.”

QSWNS

